

ROUTE OF SHAME, GENEVA

4 JUNE 2014

The Route of Shame 2014

- Led by members of the global union federation Public Services International (PSI), trade union leaders from around the world will join in a ‘Route of Shame’ protest action on Wednesday 4 June and visit missions and embassies in Geneva and other capitals around the globe to demand respect for workers’ and trade union rights.
- The ‘Route of Shame’ takes place during the 103rd International Labour Conference (ILC) in Geneva. A major focus of the annual ILC is to determine whether countries are upholding their obligations to respect the rights of workers and their trade unions under International Labour Organization conventions.
- Countries of specific concern for PSI include Algeria, Egypt, Swaziland, Turkey, Greece, Portugal, Spain, Croatia, Georgia, Canada, Guatemala, Ecuador, Paraguay, Peru, Honduras, Colombia, Haiti, South Korea, Bangladesh, Cambodia and Indonesia.

Show solidarity

- By organizing a Route of Shame in your capital
- By making a route along the embassies of the countries that violate workers' rights
- By requesting meetings with the ambassadors of these countries and express concern for the violation of trade union and workers' rights
- By meeting your Ministry of Labour / Ministry of Foreign Affairs / Parliament

PSI Global Event

- Be part of a global PSI event for trade union rights
- Build on the Route of Shame for further solidarity actions in 2014-2015
- Build coalitions with other GUFs and civil society organizations on trade union rights
- Get media coverage for the Route of Shame and visibility for PSI campaigns
- Get young workers involved
