LIFT THE BURDEN JOBS NOT DEBT

Every man, woman and child in Ireland has already coughed up €9,000 to pay bank debts. And they want you to pay more – €64 billion in total – for debts that you, your family and your country did NOT run up.

Far from being 'bailed out' Ireland has paid more hard cash to the banks than any other European country. Germany has paid €40 billion. But we've already paid a staggering €41 billion. Our bill is equal to a quarter of Ireland's economic output. In Germany it's just 3%.

Last year the EU promised to do a deal on bank debt. But nothing's been done. We'll never have a sustainable recovery without a deal on this unfair debt. That's why trade unions and others are demanding that the EU keeps its promise. Your voice will help ensure that Europe's leaders can't ignore the call for justice.

Saturday 9th February

Tell the banks and EU leaders how you feel!

Ireland's current EU presidency is a unique opportunity to highlight this injustice and influence the European leaders who think they've solved the 'Irish problem'. Our children and grandchildren must not be condemned to unemployment, emigration, low living standards, poor public services and economic instability to bail out banks who've paid nothing for their disastrous greed, dishonesty and incompetence.
